

Save time and money by signing up for the Automatic Bill Payments . No more making out a check and looking for a stamp; or wondering if you paid your bill; or finding your payment on the pickup dash and then having a late fee. You will continue to receive a bill stating how much will be taken from your banking institution. The ACH takes place the 5th of each month or the following work day. If you need to make an adjustment, simply call our office. If interested in this service, please complete the following and mail to:
